

update july 11 2025:

brickadia just came out, and im updating all of this in light of port (wife of evar, shota artist that used to dev for brickadia) being let back into the official discord with open arms by the devs and being treated like an old friend. considering thats starting to blow up, i figured i should finally put this dossier out there, as i feel like this stuff needs to be known. ive never released this until now as for a while ive felt pretty powerless to say anything about this; the brickadia mods have a bad habit of censoring people and sweeping shit like this under the rug.

this doc was written 2023, most photos and timestamps were taken then. keep that in mind.

i also want to reiterate, i want this game to succeed. ive been waiting for brickadia for nearly two years, but the way the developers and moderators just let pedophiles into their community is outright fucking disgusting.

before delving into much, id like to give the rundown on shizza04.

shizza was a member of the blockland forums, who was involved in a massive fiasco involving him sexually harassing other users of the website.

i dont want to dig up any present day alias of shizza, as i honestly believe that he may have issues with autism, on top of being groomed.

the person who i believe to have groomed him is erika, who used to go by jiatheshark before becoming transgender.

proof of erika grooming shizza can be found on their old manyland worlds. both of them have since been taken down (erika scrubbed theirs completely, shizzas got removed as a result of manyland shutting down) shizza's manyland (<https://manyland.com/hughjass>) has two links to two locations, one of which is an 18+ section dedicated to erp, filled with spirited dildos, player sprites with sex animations, and more the other location is erika's manyland, which has been completely scrubbed of all content.

before erika scrubbed their manyland, i was able to take a screenshot of a bulletin board on erika's manyland that shizza had posted on, advertising his 18+ manyland section. this proves that the two were comfortable with sex around each other, and both were likely doing questionable shit on manyland together.

screenshot taken january 1st, 2019 (four years ago). the posts on the bulletin board are from around 2017, and are around six years old.

jia would have been 18 years old, and shizza 14 years old.

id also like to note the manyland comments being from (at the latest) january 2017. a lot of shizza's sexual harassment occurred later that year. i believe that shizza's sexual interactions with erika would have made sex and erp seem completely normal to him, likely directly leading to shizza's spree of sexual harassment against other blf users. i do not doubt that shizza had boundary issues, and erika played no good part in this.
